

Acme Technologies - Employee Handbook

Version 1.0 - Training document for the Production RAG Assistant project

1. Annual Leave

Full-time employees receive 30 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Leave requests of five consecutive working days or more should be submitted at least two weeks in advance.

Unused annual leave may be carried over until March 31 of the following year. Any remaining balance after that date expires unless an exception is approved by Human Resources.

2. Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work due to illness should notify their manager as early as possible on the first day of absence. A medical certificate is required when an absence lasts more than three consecutive calendar days, unless local law or company instructions require it earlier.

3. Parental Leave

Employees may take parental leave in accordance with applicable German law. Employees should inform Human Resources and their manager as early as possible so that leave dates and handover arrangements can be planned.

4. Remote Work

Employees may work remotely up to three days per week when their role permits it and their manager approves the arrangement. Tuesday is the default team collaboration day and employees are expected to work from their assigned office unless an exception is agreed.

5. Information Security

Confidential company information must only be stored in approved company systems. Employees must not upload confidential documents to personal cloud storage or unapproved AI services.

Security incidents, suspected phishing, or accidental data exposure must be reported to the Security team as soon as they are discovered.

6. Expenses

Business expenses must be submitted within 30 days of the transaction. Receipts are required for individual expenses above EUR 25.

7. Learning and Development

Each employee has an annual learning budget of EUR 1,500 for approved courses, books, certifications, or conferences relevant to their role.

8. Handbook Questions

Questions about this handbook should be directed to Human Resources. Where this handbook conflicts with applicable law or an employment agreement, the applicable law or agreement takes precedence.
